From the Professor of Chemistry, California College of Pharmacy.

SAN FRANCISCO, JANUARY 24, 1890.

I have made a careful analysis of a sample of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder purchased by me in open market. The results of my analysis show that the Cream of Tartar used in its manufacture is pure, and that it does not contain any foreign substances, such as Alum, Ammonia, Lime or other impurities. I consider it to be pure and wholesome, and in every way a superior article.

Republican State Convention.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

VIRGINIA, Sept. 4.—The delegates to the Convention are flocking in, and all sorts of rumors are afloat as to the probable result.

Powning is developing a good deal of strength. He figures this morning on seventy votes, including twenty-one from Storey, but the Newlands men claim he will be nominated on the first ballot by eighty-one votes.

Thompson is also in the field. Efforts are being made to induce Mr. Newlands to reconsider his withdrawal from the Congressional fight.

It is rumored that Mr. Fitch will again enter the Congressional contest. He hopes to receive a respectable complimentary vote and then withdraw.

There is an uncertainty as to who will receive the nomination for Supreme Judge. It is said that the Storey delegation are a unit for Rising for the place, but that he absolutely refuses to enter the contest.

The friends of Bigelow are trying to pull him into the fight, but thus far without success.

Woodburn is confident of securing the nomination, but it is quietly hinted that Coffin will loom up as a dark horse for this office.

Rising will be renominated for District Judge, and so probably will Bigelow if he fails to secure the Supreme Judgeship.

Judge Wells, Cline of Eureka and Talbot of Elko will contest for the remaining District Judgeships.

Horton of Lander has the inside track for Controller.

Jones will undoubtedly be renominated for Surveyor-General without opposition.

The Storey delegation are a unit for Egan for Treasurer, and will probably win the fight.

Torreyson and Alexander are contestants for the Attorney-Generalship, with the chances in favor of the former.

The Storey delegation are pulling tooth and nail for Joseph for Clerk of the Supreme Court, and he is said to be leading Bicknell.

The Storey delegation is pressing Eckley for State Printer against Davis of Ormsby, and are confident of winning.

No nominations are expected before tomorrow.

The convention was called to order at 2 P. M. Thomas Wren was elected temporary Chairman and F. P. Lang temporary Secretary.

The Committees on Permanent Organization, Credentials and Platform and Resolutions were appointed and at 3 o'clock the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock to-night.

Much regret is expressed by a large number of members of the convention that Mr. Newlands absolutely refuses to allow his name to be used for the Congressional nomination. They say that if Mr. Bartine had accepted the Supreme Judgeship—a position for which he was better fitted than that which he now holds—and Mr. Newlands should be nominated for Congress, it would have greatly strengthened the party and given very general satisfaction.

Mr. Newlands will have a seat in the Convention as a proxy from Washoe county. He will second the nomination of Bartine, and will also probably take occasion to define his position.

Chinese Excursion Wanted.

By Associated Press.]

OTTAWA, Sept. 4.—At yesterday's session of the Dominion Labor Convention, a letter from the Victoria, B. C., Trades Assembly calling the attention of Congress to the increase in Chinese immigration during the last year was read. It protested particularly against this immigration because of their immorality and the congestion of the labor market that resulted. It stated that the opium habit is becoming so common in the west among young white men it was no longer a cause of horror or even wonder. "Surely," the letter goes on to say, "Dominion Government is not so dead to the future of Canada as to allow these things to continue. Legislation as exclusive as that of the Australian colonies would have the desired effect."

A Dismaying Admission.

By Cable and Associated Press.]

PARIS, Sept. 4.—Lagerre, a well-known Boulangerist member of the Chamber of Deputies, in an address to his constituents last night, admitted that Boulanger held relations with the Count De Paris and Prince Jerome Napoleon.

Laqueune thanked the Duchesse De Ennesse for spending 3,000,000 francs to advance Boulanger's interests.

In an interview Boulanger protested that the alleged relations concerning him were idle talk. He declared that he did not despair of playing a prominent part in the affairs of France in revenge himself upon his enemies.

Thirty People Drowned.

By Cable and Associated Press.]

PRAGUE, Sept. 4.—The bridge over the Moldau, on which a number of people were watching the flood, collapsed to-day and thirty persons were drowned.

PRAGUE, Sept. 4.—Two more arches at Carlsbrunn have collapsed. The monuments on the bridge were destroyed. The inhabitants of the town are taking refuge on the house-tops. The dam of Prince Schwarzenburg's great fish pond at Wittingham has burst.

Discharged From Custody.

By Associated Press.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—Some days ago the police arrested C. C. Rodney on a telegram from the Chief of Police of Portland, Or., saying he was wanted for embezzlement. He appeared in Court this morning on a writ of habeas corpus, and was discharged from custody on the ground that the police had no right to arrest him without a warrant. The Court demanded that Rodney bring an action for false arrest, and Rodney's attorney said he would do so.

Kansas Republican Convention.

By Associated Press.]

TOPEKA, Sept. 4.—The Republican State Convention this morning nominated S. G. Slover for Treasurer. The platform favors protection as expounded by Blaine, demands service pension, a deep water harbor on the Gulf of Mexico, indorses Harrison, indorses prohibition and more stringent laws for its enforcement, and declares against alien ownership of land.

Congressional Matters.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The Senate tariff bill was taken up under an agreement limiting the discussion on each subject to five minutes for each Senator.

Gibson withdrew his amendment offered by him on Tuesday to the sugar schedule, a mistake having been made in it, and offered another amendment striking out that schedule and substituting for it the sugar provisions of the Mills bill.

Butler presented a communication from the State Department showing the relative exportations of cotton goods by Great Britain and the United States. He thought the information might be valuable, in view of reciprocal propositions. It showed him absolutely that Great Britain had control of the market in South and Central America, Asia and Africa, the value of cotton goods exported into those countries being $175,000,000 against $20,000,000 from the United States. He therefore asked to have the paper printed in the record. So ordered.

The presiding officer (Ingalls) announced that general debate on the tariff bill was closed, with the exception of a reservation of a day when the final vote will be taken, and when three hours' time is to be allowed each side. The sugar schedule was laid aside informally and the schedule of cotton manufacturers taken up. The amendments to reduce the rates in the various paragraphs of the schedule offered by McPherson, Carlisle and Vance were uniformly rejected without a yeas and nays vote.

McPherson moved to strike out the paragraph relating to stockings and hose and substitute one making the rate of duty 30 per cent. ad valorem. Rejected, yeas 20, nays 27.

Paddock and Plumb voted with the Democrats in the affirmative and neither Ingalls nor Manderson voted. All the paragraphs in the schedule having been disposed of, the schedule was taken up relating to flax, hemp, jute and their manufactures. The Finance Committee had reported an amendment reducing the rate on flax: not dressed from 1 1/2 cents per pound to $20 a ton. On this amendment Washburn demanded the yeas and nays. The committee's amendments were agreed to, 32 to 14. All the Democrats voted yea. The negative votes were given by Allen, Cameron, Casey, Davis, Dolph, Higgins, McMillan, Moody, Paddock, Pierce, Sherman, Stockbridge, Washburn and Wilson of Iowa.

The next amendment was that of the Finance Committee to reduce the duty on hatched flax from 4 cents to $40 per ton. Passed, yeas 33, nays 16. The Democrats all voted for the amendment and the following Republicans against it: Allen, Cameron, Casey, Davis, Dolph, Higgins, McMillan, Manderson, Moody, Mitchell, Paddock, Pierce, Quay, Sherman, Stockbridge and Washburn.

The special House committee investigating the charges against Pension Commissioner Ramm met this morning. Cooper, who brings the charges, was not present to testify and the committee issued a subpoena for him to appear on Monday.

HOUSE.

Cummings of New York, rising to a question of privilege, spoke against his being blacklisted by the famous Cannon resolution. He said the gentleman who offered the resolution made unjust imputations, and in making these imputations, falsified the record and blacklisted himself. He then proceeded to make an attack upon Cannon, comparing him to the noted Tinnville of the French Revolution, after which he proceeded to arraign the Speaker and a majority of the Committee on Rules.

Latest From Minner.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—A telegram has been received at the State Department from Minner at Guatemala, saying the forces are being rapidly disbanded, and peace will be formally declared next week. He says nothing in regard to the Barrandina incident or the reported attacks upon himself.

The Senate Excited.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Much indignation exists among Republican Senators over Representative Kennedy's attack on the Senate as a whole and Quay in particular, yesterday. Several consultations were held, but no plan of action was agreed upon. Prominent Senators said that, after a time, if the House took no action, the Senate should pass a resolution calling the attention of the House to the unparliamentary proceedings, and then leave it to deal with the question as it saw fit. But this action would depend upon the manner in which the knowledge of the delivery of the speech reached the Senate.

Kennedy's remarks do not appear in to-day's Congressional Record, the reporter noting that they "are withheld for revision," and unless they come before the Senate in the Record or some other authoritative way, it may be that nothing will be done.

Quay knew nothing of the delivery of the speech until this morning, and after his arrival at the Senate he conferred with several of his colleagues, spending considerable time with Ingalls. He said to the reporter that he had not determined upon the course to pursue. He had under consideration the making of a statement under the rule governing questions of personal privilege.

A Sudden Death.

By Associated Press.]

CINCINNATI, Sept. 4.—Hon. E. F. Noyes, Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati, fell dead shortly after 11 o'clock to-day, at the Court House. He had been on the bench, but as he was too unwell to proceed further, left the bench and was on his way to the street car, when he suddenly fell backward and died immediately. The cause is supposed to be apoplexy.

Noyes was 57 years old and entered the army here in 1861 as Major of the Thirty-ninth Ohio Regiment Infantry and soon after was its Colonel. On July 4, 1864, at Ruff's Mill, Ga., in a charge upon the enemy's earth-works, which he led, he lost a leg. He left the army a Brevet Major General. Since the war he served as City Solicitor of Cincinnati, Probate Judge of Hamilton county, Governor of Ohio and was Minister to France under President Hayes. Last year he was elected Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati.

Speaker Read Talks.

By Associated Press.]

DOVER (N. H.), Sept. 4.—Speaker Reed left Boston for Portland in a special car this morning. At Haverhill he stopped and was escorted to the public square, where he spoke on national affairs twenty minutes. He also spoke at Dover. He congratulated his hearers upon belonging to the Republican party, because it is a "mildly honest" party, reasonably good, and is on the way to become thoroughly and absolutely good. The remainder of the address was in vindication of the keeping of promises by the Republican party. Henry Cabot Lodge was then introduced and spoke a few moments. Three cheers were given for Reed.

American Social Science.

By Associated Press.]

SARASOTA, Sept. 4.—The morning session of the American Social Science Association was opened by Prof. Albert Shaw of Minneapolis, who read a paper on "Municipal Reform." President White discussed the same question. P. Wayland D. D. of Philadelphia read a paper entitled "Laissez Faire Run Mad." The "History of Voting by Ballot" was discussed by L. Bennett of New York.

Torrey expounded the national bankrupt law, and Benjamin Wright read a paper on "Banking on the Pacific Coast."

Not a Force Bill.

Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, author of the Federal Election Bill now before the Senate, writes as follows to the North American Review for September:

The National Election bill is a moderate measure. It is not a force bill; it does not interfere in any way with local elections or local government. It does not involve extravagant expenditure, nor is it sectional in its scope. It does not seek to put the negro or any other class of citizens in control anywhere, but aims merely to secure to every man who ought to vote the right to vote and to have his vote honestly counted. No one knows those facts to be true better than the opponents of the bill; but their difficulty is that they cannot bring forward their real and honest objection, and so they resort to much shrieking and many epithets. They believe, whether rightly or wrongly, that fair elections mean the loss of the National House at least nine times out of ten to the party to which they belong. They believe that fair elections mean the rise of a Republican party in every Southern State, led by and in good part composed of white men, native to the ground, whose votes are now suppressed under the pretense of maintaining race supremacy as against the negro. They believe that the law threatens the disappearance of the race issue on which they found their power, and the fall of the narrow oligarchy which for so many years has ruled with iron hand in the Southern States and in the national conventions of the Democratic party.

The real objection to the bill, in other words, comes from the fact that one of the two great parties believe that free elections imperil their power. They know that by this bill the United States officers, taken from both parties, are appointed by the courts, the body farthest removed from politics. They know that these United States officers will be held in check by local officers, and be utterly unable to interfere with the proper conduct of the election. But they know also that the result will be publicity, and they believe that in consequence of publicity many districts will be lost to them. This law is as fair to one party as another; but if one party is cheating, that party will suffer, and where the cry against the law is loudest it is the best evidence of its necessity, and proves that those who resist it profit by the wrongdoing which it seeks to cure.

It is calculated that the new bridge over the Hudson at New York, which will be the greatest engineering feat of the century, will cost about $40,000,000. It will take ten years to construct it and will be a third larger than the East river bridge and twenty feet higher, but unlike the former it will be of a cantilever type. Storehouses will be located beneath the great structure. Freight cars will unload by means of chutes into these and ships will load direct from them or direct into the cars. The grand Union passenger depot, a part of the enterprise, will be a colossal structure of steel capable of accommodating all trains that now enter New York and New Jersey City. It will be large enough to hold twenty tracks side by side and will be 1800 feet in length.

PRACTICAL TESTS.

An Astonishing Offer—Some of the Replies.

The San Francisco papers of recent date contained the following offer: "As an evidence of the ability of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla to prevent sick headaches, we will give to the first twelve responsible persons who will apply at our office a bottle free if they will agree that after they have been cured that they will admit the fact over their signatures."

This offer so startlingly asserted the efficiency of the remedy that many accepted, and the letters of the parties, nearly all of whom responded, are probably the most convincing attestations that any remedy ever received. The following is a sample of those received:

"I have been subject to bilious headaches and constipation for several years past; in fact, have been compelled to take a chrysine every other night or else I would have a headache and dull, mean feeling. I have taken that bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, and have derived great benefit from it, and intend continuing it. After my own experience I can heartily advise those troubled with biliousness and constipation to try it. Yours, CHAS. E. ELKINGTON, 125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco."

FROM DISTANT LANDS.

A TEA trust has been formed in Tokio, Japan, "for the purpose of restoring the declining tea trade of that country."

Turkish engineers say that the river Euphrates might be made navigable the year round by an expenditure of $100,000.

Prince and Princess Radzivil having set the example of giving dinners in the Eiffel tower, Paris society is following the fashion. These dinners come high, but they must have them.

The burning of women and sacrifice of slaves is reported to be still practiced in Bali, a small island off Java, notwithstanding a treaty with the Dutch prohibiting such barbarities.

LONDON is overrun with what it is pleased to call "piano reciters," and the musical agencies have declined for the present to make any new engagements with celebrities of that sort.

A "FOSSIL FOREST" has been discovered in Scotland. Thirty or forty fossil trunks have already been laid bare, most of which are gray freestone. One of the trunks is at least two feet in diameter.

A CURIOS fashion has come into vogue in Paris. In all the cemeteries metal boxes with a slit in the lid are placed on the tombstones to receive the cards of visitors. The relatives of the deceased are thus enabled to see who among the living will cherish the memory of their departed friends.

The salvation army in Paris has been reinforced by a salvation navy. A church boat floats on the river Seine near the Point de la Concorde. The "floating temple," as the Parisians call it, has been named "The Herald of Mercy." In the hall amidships there is accommodation for two hundred persons.

The barrister's wig is giving much trouble in the warm colonies of England. He is a bold judge as well as a sensible one who takes off his own wig and suggests to other members of the bar that they do the same. Special wigs are now made for warm climates, which are extremely light, being a mere horse hair net.

Salzburg will shortly be the city of Mozart's birthplace. An opera-house in which only the performances of Mozart's operas will be given has been planned and the money for building it has been raised, and before next summer the structure will be well under way. It will seat two thousand persons.

The Government of Morocco lately sent ten Arab horses of the purest and finest blood as a gift to the King of Belgium. When they reached Brussels King Leopold was not greatly struck by their beauty, and on an investigation being made it turned out that the original animals had been sold by some unscrupulous official and that inferior ones had been substituted.

An English officer who recently traveled on the public service says that he sent in in his account of traveling expenses the entry: "Porter, one shilling." His accounts were returned, with the remark that porter could not be allowed, but that if the entry were intended for the conveyance of luggage it should be noted as portage. The alteration was duly made, and a query added as to whether a cab should not be entered as "cabbage." The reply was that "correspondence on this subject must cease."

It is now twenty years since the Japanese began to reform their institutions, and during that time nothing has more clearly shown their adaptability and intelligence than the progress which they have made in education. Out of 6,743,920 children of school age in the Empire, 2,890,000 are enrolled in the public schools, while universities, commercial schools, schools of fine art and of music, schools for the deaf, dumb and blind, law courses in German, French and English, libraries and museums, all form part of a thorough and progressive system.

MEANT FOR MERRIMENT. "PAPA," said little Johnny Cumso, "the paper says: 'The people at large think so.' What does it mean by the people at large?" "Those not in jail," replied his sage papa.

LITTLESHORT—"I can't pay that old account just yet, Mr. Cutaway, but I want a suit this summer if you can accommodate me." Tailor—"Certainly, sir. I'll instruct my attorney to commence one to-morrow."

A MAN who had foolishly ventured upon a verbal contest with his wife was met, as he was retiring from the scene, by his little son, who had just begun to study grammar. "Papa," said the child, "what part of speech is woman?" "She isn't any part of speech at all, Gregory; she's the whole of it."

A SCOTCH dominie who had argued long with a female parishioner over certain disputed religious questions at last exclaimed in despair: "It's no use arguing with you any longer; you are not open for conviction!" Whereupon the irate but triumphant dame responded: "I am open to conviction, but just show me the man that can convince me!"

TOGO—"What's this advertisement you have out in front, stating that you are selling goods way below cost?" EINSTEIN—"It's der truth, my friend." FOGG—"Now, you don't mean to stand there and tell me that you are selling goods so cheap as all that?" EINSTEIN—"I'll tell you der fact. My customers are getting rich buying from me and selling to der rag man."

"Isn't that Mr. Dolliver near the chairman?" said Mrs. Pongree to her husband, at a public dinner. "Yes, my dear." "How utterly miserable he looks! Has he been ill?" "Oh, no, he's all right. The poor fellow is booked for a funny speech after dinner, that's all."

Mrs. AYXOO—"Bridget, the parlor windows are so dirty I can't see through them." Bridget—"Wall, mum, I only just came from the front door, and beyond the faces of Miss Fashion and her young man in the bay window opposite, there's nuthin' across the way worth lookin' at."

FANNIE's mother is a great hand to borrow of her next-door neighbor. One day Fannie went into a neighbor's for a visit, but found them all ready to go away to stay a week. "Is so all dots at once?" "Yes, baby and all." "Why," she said, in an aggrieved tone, "how can you? My mamma will want to borrow 'em."

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes digestion, relieves headache, clears the mind, and cures dyspepsia.

In a Terrible Condition. "I owe my life to Hood's Sarsaparilla. For two years I was in a terrible condition with dyspepsia. I could eat nothing but soda crackers, and my weight fell from 120 to 135 pounds. Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me at once, and after using 12 bottles I was entirely cured. I have gained my usual weight, 120 pounds, and have had excellent health ever since." T. J. Wilson, 28-29 1st South Street, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Headache—Hot Flashes. "I had headache, hot flashes, nervousness and swelling across my body, pain in my right side, with frequent vomiting. I used Hood's Sarsaparilla with the best results. The Ladies Delighted.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in action on the kidneys, liver, and bowels.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Bean, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Jameson, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being unwell there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them, and was tried in several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled as a household remedy. It is 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Shoemaker & Co."

Summer Complaint.—A druggist at Britt, Hancock County, Iowa, relates his experience with this disease as follows: During the summer of 1882, my little girl, two years of age, was taken seriously ill with summer complaint, so common to children of that age, and after being treated by a physician and getting no better, I took from my shelves a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. She felt relieved after the first dose, and in three days was entirely well.—ALEX. MORRIS. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Electric Bitters.
This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A pure medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do what is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers. For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price, 50 cts. and $1 per bottle at Finner's drug store.

Is Consumption Incurable?
Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lung, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and am able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middleton, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of lung troubles, was given up by doctors, am now a well man. Try it. Sample bottles free at Finner's drug store."

Spring Fever.
At this season of the year the most vigorous and healthy people often have a feeling of weariness, tired and worn out, without ambition to do anything, and many break out in pimples and boils. What you require is a mild tonic to the blood, and for this nothing equals Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. They give the blood a purifying, purify the blood and by their mild tonic action, new vitality and strength to the entire system. Sold at 25 cents a box by S. J. Hodgkinson.

F. & A. M.

A FEASIBLE SCHEME.

Which Would Greatly Benefit This Place.

EDITOR GAZETTE: The writer has noticed from time to time the earnest endeavors of the GAZETTE to draw the attention of home-seekers to the many advantages in point of health, climate, education, etc., that Nevada offers. On several short mountain trips during the present season, the query has occurred, why haven't the people of Reno and Washoe county, through the Board of Commissioners, looked into the advisability of bringing almost to the threshold of the town a place of resort, for a summer outing, that would give, not only to our own residents an opportunity of summer recreation that now many of our people are deprived of on account of expense and distance, but would place Reno on the list as a tourist center that would rival if not excel many of the prominent places of the coast. The extreme northern coast or shores of Lake Tahoe lie directly south of Reno, the exact distance being but a few miles. This portion of the lake presents

THE PRETTIEST SCENERY

Of any part of the lake, besides being the wildest and of such grandeur as to at once impress an observer with awe. Comparatively it is as yet in its state of nature; its grand canons deeply shaded with heavy timber, and foaming mountain torrents bounding furiously downward to be lost in the shimmering depths of the lake. The coast line presents all of the novelties of rocky cliffs, and deep little coves with beaches of beautiful white sand. A mountain road could be constructed from Reno, starting on California Avenue and following the bluff along the river, turning in a southerly direction until intersecting the old Mackay & Fair camp mountain road, which could be repaired at small expense. After reaching the old camp a route could be easily selected to the lake shore. The scenery, as the ascent is made from Reno,

IS PERFECTLY GRAND.

The windings of the Truckee river being in view for miles, the town of Reno far below, the Truckee Meadows and neighboring valleys with their endless carpets of green dotted with pleasant homes, the mountains, on the north and east, presents a landscape so varied and beautiful that an attempt at description would be useless. On the slope towards the lake the eye would again be surprised, and more than pleased, by the entire change of scene, not more beautiful than the last picture, but impressively grand with its heavily wooded crags and depths of canyons; Mount Rose on the south, with its everlasting snows, and the incomparable Lake Tahoe at your feet. As one crosses the range and begins the descent towards the lake, he is invigorated by the balmy air of the coast, loaded with the scent of fir and pine as it sweeps across the heavily timbered Sierras. At the lake shore ample space is offered for cottages, camping grounds, etc., and the time would not be far distant when some enterprising person would have a hotel affording

ACCOMMODATION TO THE TOURIST.
As an addition to the pleasant drives in and about Reno, it is worth consideration, as it would only be a few hours drive to the lake and return, allowing the pleasure-seeker several hours at the lake, even though he had out a day to spare for recreation. Tourists from the east could leave the train at Reno, visit the lake and return via Truckee, taking the next train west; the order of things could be reversed for passengers from the west. In this way Reno would gain, by having travelers pass a few hours in the city during which their ideas as to the resources, advantages, etc., of the community could be formed. During the season about to close the writer has observed that Carson derives much benefit in this way, there having been a constant stream of pleasure-seekers crossing from Truckee, via Tahoe City, to Carson, taking the V. & T., simply passing through Reno in the course of travel. While it is not the disposition to take from Truckee or Carson this benefit, Reno

CAN CLAIM HER OWN.

By providing a route to the lake for Eastern tourists. The north end of the lake is in Washoe county, and the road could be constructed and kept up by the county, as it would certainly be for its benefit, and if not, by private subscription. The view obtained of Pawning's, Thompson's and Ryland's additions to Reno, besides other building sites, would pay these gentlemen to subscribe a goodly amount towards the expense of the road. Laying aside the business possibility, the establishment of this short route to the lake would be a boon to many people in Reno who are now unable, owing to distance, lack of time and expense, from enjoying a day's pleasure in the mountains; whereas, if the chance were offered by the building of this road, many could and would take advantage of it.

YOUNG LADY TOURISTS.

Who are able to Take Care of Themselves.
The Homer Index of Aug. 30th says: A couple of young lady tourists, on route for Yosemite, camped on Mountrose's sawdust dump last Monday night, and fried their bacon and snatched like old mountaineers, after which they cuddled up in their blankets and went to sleep "snug as a bug in a rug." A formidable rifle and six shooter lay beside them, and they were not molested. They had two saddle horses and a diminutive burro to pack their traps, and were comfortably equipped for roughing it.

Panorama Battle of Gettysburg and Museum.
The celebrated panorama of the Battle of Gettysburg and Museum corner of Market and Tenth streets, San Francisco, is the most wonderful entertainment Prisco has ever had. People are wild over it. The native sons are enthusiastic for it. All nationalities crowd it. It eclipses Chicago's great panorama of Gettysburg both in popularity and in artistic merit. The McKinley term now is "Have you not seen it?" meaning, of course, Gettysburg.

in accordance with the instructions of the said committee.

The following test will be required of each primary voter at the said Primary

"I am a citizen of this State and will support the nominees of the Republican party."

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this committee recommends the State and National Republican platform for 1890, including the declaration that the Union is indivisible in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money, and that it, "condemns all efforts to demonize silver."

Resolved, That the persistent neglect of the currency by the National Government, and the consequent depreciation of the value of silver to the maximum of four million dollars per month, coupled with his attempt to influence Congress to pass legislation so as to perpetuate the silver demonization, is a violation of the silver plank of the National Republican platform, and that it is the duty of the Republican party to oppose such legislation.

Resolved, That the Republican party is in favor of free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver; that it holds to this principle as a test of party faith and a test of party veracity; that it will permit no abandonment or modification of this principle; that it will support the principle of free coinage of silver to the maximum

COMPLETE SELF-CONTROL.

One of the Fundamental Qualities in Any Large and High Success.

There are few qualities which life so directly within the reach of every man and woman, because so immediately the result of education, as self-control; and yet there are few qualities which are so generally lacking. Everybody has a certain amount of self-control, but there are many people who compensate themselves for the repression of their energies on one side by giving them full play on another. Self-control means the entire mastery of one's nature; means always having in hand all one's powers, means sitting on the box and driving instead of being driven. The absence of self-control is seen in many small ways: In the uncontrolled rising of the tones of voice in earnest talking; in purely nervous gesticulation and restlessness; in the inability to drop a subject when we have gotten through with it; in irritability, and that subdued violence shown, not in outbursts of temper, but in little gusts of passion escaping here and there. These are small things in themselves, but many of them are exceedingly irritating and disagreeable, and they all involve a really serious result—a loss of nervous force. The heightened tone of the voice, the incessant gesticulation, the physical restlessness, are not only unpleasant, but they involve just so much needless expenditure of a force of which few of us possess a superabundance. Complete self-control is one of the fundamental qualities in any large and high success; for complete self-control means that one has one's self completely in hand and is able to address one's self exclusively to whatever is necessary to be done at the moment. It is a great mistake to invest power from any kind of violence or restlessness. True power is allied with composure, with calmness, with self-restraint; and real power is manifested in restraint and composure and not in violence of speech or action. A man of nervous organization recently said that he had gained immense benefit by simply watching the modulations of his voice and persistently resisting the inclination to run into high tones. He had found not only relief for the vocal chords, but a calmness and calmness of thought and feeling which made him conscious of the great blunder of wasting nervous strength by suffering the vocal chords to sympathize with an excited condition rather than keeping them under steady control. This is one illustration of the possibility of overcoming the common forces of nervousness. To "let one's self go" is not only to lose force at a particular point, but to invite a reaction along the whole line of physical expression, and so to continually stir up and agitate, instead of continually restraining and calming. There are a great many people who lay these minor faults on the shoulders of a nervous temperament, and who do not know that a nervous temperament, under control, is a tremendous force, and that it is just as susceptible of being governed by the will as the grosser appetites or passions.

FACTS ABOUT LEAVES.

Specially Modified by Nature for Some Particular Purpose.

Even the most cursory observer of vegetable life must have been struck with the various forms of leaves.
Why they should be so variously formed does not, however, often suggest itself, though there is a reason for the special shape and texture of almost every leaf in existence. Plants, such as grasses, daffodils and others which usually grow in clusters, have generally narrow leaves growing upright, so as not to overshadow one another.
Other plants, of isolated habits, have an arrangement of foliage which secures to themselves the space of ground necessary for their development. The daisy, dandelion and shepherd's purse—which may mostly be seen in pastures—are examples of this.
A circle of broad leaves pressed against the ground, forming what is known as a rosette growth, effectually bars the approach of any other plant and keeps clear from all other roots the space of ground necessary to its own nutriment.
Floating leaves, and leaves of marsh plants, are usually of simple outline, for, having few competitors, they are not liable to get in one another's light.
Submerged plants have mostly leaves of narrow segments—the reason for which is not very well understood, though it is assumed by naturalists that it is for the purpose of exposing as large a surface as possible, in order to extract the minute proportion of carbonic acid dissolved in a vast bulk of water. Leaves on the boughs of trees are often much divided, so as to fold easily, to prevent their being rent and torn by high winds, while the glossy surface of evergreens is intended to throw off rain and dew, which might freeze on them, and so cause injury to the tissues within. But the hints on the surface of leaves are perhaps the most interesting study of all. With the aid of a microscope, the beautiful and systematic arrangement of these can be easily discerned, and their uses understood. On many plants there are glandular hairs, to catch or deter small creeping insects; on others there are hairs set so as to act as effectively against young animals as a spike palisade against ostrich boys; on others, hairs which arrest the drops of moisture and force them down the leaf-stalk, to moisten the earth about the roots; while others are protected by a net of poisonous stings. The ordinary nettle is an example of this, and the beauty and ingenuity of its mechanism is truly wonderful. Each nettle hair is armed with a brittle and pointed silicous cap, which breaks off in the wound; and the poison is then able to flow out through a tubular hair, from a reservoir at its base. There is scarcely a form of leaf but is specially modified by nature for some particular purpose, and the discovery of this purpose is a source of very pleasant, as well as profitable, study. —Horticultural Times.

Russian Remedy for Toothache.

A Russian practitioner recommends the use of hyoscyamus seeds for toothache. His plan is to burn the seeds and to convey the smoke through a little paper tube to the hole in the tooth. He declares that in nearly all cases one application, or at most two, will suffice to cure the toothache.

THINGS IN GENERAL.

The population of the earth doubles itself in 300 years.

MICHIGAN has paid off a debt of over $7,000,000 since 1880, and is now free from debt.

THERE are 200,000 more Germans in New York City than in any second-class city in Germany.

PROPERTY to the value of $123,000,000 was consumed by fire in the United States during 1889, an increase of $12,- 000,000 over the preceding year.

It is estimated that the regular insurance companies of the United States will disburse during 1890 the sum of $83,000,000 in death, endowment and dividend claims. It is an average of $1,600 for every minute in the year.

Dr. Flint is quoted as saying: "I have never known a dyspeptic to recover vigorous health who undertook to live after a strictly regulated diet, and I have never known an instance of a healthy person living according to a strictly dietetic system who did not become a dyspeptic."

The postal agent at the place commonly known in this country as Aspinwall has notified the postal department at Washington that "the geographical and official name of this town is Colon," and letters received at the office addressed Aspinwall will be returned as misdirected.

ACCORDING to the New Orleans Times-Democrat the census returns from some parishes in Louisiana indicate that the whites are increasing in a greater ratio than the blacks in that State. In Red River Parish, for instance, the increase in the last decade has been: whites, 41.2 per cent.; negroes, 27.3 per cent.

But few persons who view a passenger train as it goes thundering past have an idea that it represents a cash value of from $75,000 to $100,000, but such is the case. The ordinary express trains represent from $85,000 to $90,000.
The engine and tender are valued at $10,500; the baggage car, $1,000; the postal car, $2,000; the smoking car, $5,- 000; two ordinary passenger cars, $15,- 000 each; three of the trains which pull up to or out from the Grand Central Depot, New York, are worth $150,- 000.

A YOUNG New York millionaire, who is called "Eugene Aram" at the clubs, because he sits "remote from all" and mopes, frankly admits that he takes no interest in anything in the world—races, base-ball, yachts and other matters that generally engage the attention of young men in good health like himself, with a great fortune to spend.
He got tired of them long ago. "The truth is," he says, "I began life too early. I have been cursed by too much money. I wish I had been born poor.
The poison of riches has made me unfit for anything but an enervated and useless creature. I know my case would not awaken much sympathy, but I tell you it is a hard one."

The Photographic Society of Geneva, Switzerland, has just made an interesting experiment. It has been observed in the case of mature married couples who have lived together for a long period of years that, harmonious in thought and feeling, and subject to the same conditions of life, they acquire a strong facial resemblance. The society took the photographs of seventy-eight couples, to see to what extent this facial resemblance prevails. The result, says a London paper, is that in twenty-four cases the resemblance in personal appearance of the husband and wife was greater than that of brother and sister.
In thirty cases it was equally great; and in only twenty-four was there a total absence of resemblance.

INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION.

The wool clip in the United States for 1889 was 202,000,000 pounds.

In Austria, a petroleum flame is now made to spin 1,500 yards of glass thread per minute, which is used not only for cloth but for chains, brushes, etc.

ANOTHER 5,000 barrels per day of crude petroleum are consumed for fuel in Chicago. In the use of this oil for fuel about 500,000 tons of soft coal per annum are supposed to be displaced.

It is stated that at least one-half of the sugar crop of the world is produced from many sources, but beets and the sugar cane give the cheapest sources.

"STRAWBERRY TEA" is the outcome of a new industry in Germany in the utilization of the young leaves of the strawberry plant as a beverage. Having been carefully dried, they are used instead of Chinese tea, which they closely resemble in taste.

SOME experiments made at the Royal Polytechnic School at Munich show, curiously enough, that the strength of camel's hair belting reaches 6,315 pounds per square inch, while that of ordinary beltings ranges between 2,300 and 5,300 pounds per square inch, and the camel's hair belt is also unaffected by acids.

NINE-TENTHS of the dolls sold in this country are said to come from Germany, and the principal seat of manufacture there is Sonneberg, in Thuringen, a town of about 10,000 inhabitants. Doll-making is almost the entire industry of the place. It is not remunerative, as the people are very poor, owing to the low wages paid.

An electric motor is in successful operation for wood-sawing in Lewiston, Me. It is a six-horse power and with a twenty-six-inch saw, which was driven at a velocity of 1,450 revolutions per minute. The proprietor claims that with a six-horse power electric motor he can do more work than with a ten-horse power steam engine.

SHAMONY or wash leather, properly chaouis leather, is so called because originally and when of the best quality it was made from the chaouis or wild goat inhabiting the Alps and Pyrenees.
It is now made chiefly from the skin of deer, goats and sheep. It is essentially distinguished from other kinds of leather in being dressed in oil without salt, alum, or tan, and in the grain being taken off. The skins are brought to a state of pelt by liming and washing.
The buff color is imparted by dipping into gamboge, not to tan, but to dye them.

The largest tree in the world, according to statistics lately published by the Italian Government, is a chestnut trunk at the foot of Mount Ararat. The circumference of the main trunk at eleven feet from the ground is 212 feet.
